

Are you a homeschool family (or interested in becoming one) that is looking for a Christ centered curriculum? Classical Conversations may be what you're looking for! Our mission is to Know God and make Him Known. We combine a Christian Biblical Worldview and classical tools to equip parents and encourage students. As we continue into our second semester of school, we want to invite you to one of our information meetings or open houses to see if Classical Conversations is for you! Please contact Heidi Welnetz for more information on upcoming dates.
